Airship Ventures Offers Grads “High Honors” Flightseeing Tours

$99 Zeppelin Experiences Make the Sky the Limit For 2009 High School Graduates in June

MOFFETT FIELD, Calif., June 1, 2009 – Airship Ventures celebrates the achievement of 2009 high school graduates with a month of celebratory “High Honors” Flightseeing Tours above the San Francisco Bay Area and Monterey on “Eureka,” the world’s largest airship. Available during the month of June, “High Honors” Flightseeing Tours allow class of 2009 high school graduates to take a 1-hour flightseeing tour, valued at $495/person, for $99 when accompanied by a family member flying using a $375/person promotional fare; up to two additional family members may also fly with the graduate at the same limited-time $375/person rate.

“Because the experience is so one-of-a-kind and memorable, many of our passengers take a Zeppelin flight to mark life milestones. Just like the engagements, job promotions and weddings we often see onboard, high school graduation is a once-in-a-lifetime event worthy of a celebration,” commented Airship Ventures CEO Alexandra Hall. “Our ‘High Honors’ Flightseeing Tours make ‘Eureka’ the perfect place for that celebration, and are a great gift to show graduates and their family members that, after graduation, the sky is indeed the limit.”

Soaring 1000-feet above the sights aboard “Eureka,” graduates and their families will enjoy spectacular 360-degree aerial views, of vistas, landmarks, and communities from a completely different and breathtaking perspective. With flights departing from Moffett Field and Oakland several days a week, Airship Ventures offers a variety of tours above San Francisco Bay, The City, Silicon Valley and the South Bay. In addition to these signature routes, “High Honors” Flightseeing Tours above the dramatic coastline and scenic 17-Mile Drive are also available when “Eureka” makes a special visit to Monterey June 13-14, weather permitting.

All class of 2009 high school graduates are eligible for the $99 “High Honors” Flightseeing Tour celebratory fare; graduates will be asked to show a diploma or school identification card noting their 2008-2009 senior status before flying as proof of eligibility. To qualify for the special $375 fare, family members’ reservations must be booked at the same time as their graduate’s. The “High Honors” Flightseeing Tour offer applies to flights booked between June 1-30, 2009.
